Town Meeting

The State Department Town Meeting is designed to provide a forum to increase awareness and public understanding of current foreign policy issues, to encourage public engagement in the policy process and to provide an opportunity to exchange views with Department of State officials who formulate and implement policy.

United States Department of State

The U.S. Department of State is the lead agency in advancing U.S. objectives and interests in shaping a freer, more secure, and more prosperous world. The agency’s responsibility is to formulate and implement U.S. foreign policy and represent the U.S. abroad.

Kirkwood Community College

From its founding in 1996, Kirkwood Community College has grown to be one of the leading two-year colleges in America. Its fall 2002 enrollment of nearly 14,000 students makes it the third largest institution of higher learning in Iowa and the state’s largest community college.

International Visitors Council, Inc.

Established in 1965, the International Visitors Council, Inc. (IVC) coordinates professional, international exchange and training programs for visiting academic, governmental and business leaders from around the world.
